SUMMIT - 2015

30th January

2nd Edition

The Oberoi | New Delhi

Brought to you by

An Economic Times Initiative

With the formation of new Government in India, the world's eleventh largest GDP and third largest by Purchasing Power Parity (PPP) is set to witness a rapid development under the manufacturing business. With this came the opportunity to set up manufacturing business across the different states and union territory of India depending upon the industrial policy, state approval and budgets proposed.

With an anticipated growth of 50% manufacturing industry's contribution to the Indian GDP, India is bound to emerge as the most preferred destination for labor sensitive manufacturing hub.

The ET Manufacturing Summit will provide you the first-hand experience in technologies and management practices that will help you to align your manufacturing initiative to put you in the league of top industrial manufacturing innovators.
